

Where Is It?

Play this matching game to see how many famous places you know in Scotland's history.

This game is pretty hard, so don't get discouraged. If a place sounds interesting, ask your school librarian for a book about that place.

1. On a piece of paper, write the numbers 1 through 15.
2. Read the description and decide Where Is It?
3. On your paper, write the letter of the place next to a number.
4. To check how many you got right, click Show Me the Answers.

This Place...	Where Is It?
1. Is the lake where Nessie the Monster hangs out.	A. St. Andrews
2. Is the capital of Scotland where the new Scottish Parliament is located.	B. Isle of Skye
3. Is the place of the last battle in Scotland against England. Bonnie Prince Charles led this last uprising in 1745. Today, it is a preserved battlefield.	C. Holyrood Palace
4. Is where golf was invented and is still played. Hint: This place is named after the patron saint of Scotland.	D. Loch Ness
5. Is an island off Scotland where a circle of stone exists similar to Stonehenge.	E. Highlands
6. Was built by Queen Victoria. She stayed in this beautiful castle after King Albert died. The royal family still stays there on vacation.	F. Edinburgh
7. Is the tallest mountain in Scotland located in Fort William.	G. Stirling Castle
8. Is a beautiful mediaeval castle that has recently been renovated. It sits at the gate of the Highlands. It is said that whoever controls this castle, controls Scotland. Hint: William Wallace fought a famous castle here at _____ Bridge.	H. Isle of Lewis
9. Is the lake that inspired the song with the words "You take the high road, and I'll take the low road."	I. Borders
10. Is a beautiful island off the west coast of the Highlands. The Disney movie "Dragonslayer" was filmed here. In a song, Bonnie Prince Charlie rode "Over the Sea to _____."	J. Glasgow
11. Is very busy city. People there speak with a Glaswegian accent. Hint: There is a song that goes "I belong to _____."	K. Edinburgh Castle
12. Is the castle located in Edinburgh. It is located on one end of the Royal Mile, with Holyrood Palace at the other end. Hint: A famous gathering of bagpipe bands happens at the "_____ Tatum."	L. Ben Nevis
13. Is the area in the northern part of Scotland. Known for its beautiful mountains and clans.	M. Loch Lomond
14. Is the palace in Edinburgh where the Queen of England stays when she visits the capital of Scotland. It is located at one end of the Royal Mile, with Edinburgh Castle on the other end.	N. Balmoral Castle
15. Is the area of Scotland that touches England. Hint: There is a hardworking dog with the name "_____ Collie."	O. Culloden