

Who Is It?

Play this matching game to see how many famous people you know who have played a role in Scotland's history.

1. On a piece of paper, write the numbers 1 through 15.
2. Read the description and decide Who Is It?
3. On your paper, write the letter of the person next to a number.
4. To check how many you got right, click Show Me the Answers.

This Person...

Who Is It?

- |  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| 1. Is an actor who is known for his Scottish brogue. He is also known as James Bond.   | A. William Wallace     |
| 2. Was a queen who fell in love with Scotland and built Balmoral Castle. Her husband was King Albert.  | B. Queen Elizabeth     |
| 3. Was a poet who wrote a poem about the Scottish dish, haggis. Many people celebrate his birthday in January with a dinner named after him.   | C. Sir Walter Scott    |
| 4. Was actually a dog who visited his master's grave every day. After the dog's death, a monument was built by the city in his honor. This true story was told in a Disney movie by the same name. | D. Flora MacDonald     |
| 5. Fought a battle at Stirling Bridge and defeated the English. In a recent movie, Mel Gibson played this person.  | E. Sean Connery        |
| 6. Saved Bonnie Prince Charlie's life by dressing him as her servant and sailing with him to the Isle of Skye.   | F. Rob Roy             |
| 7. Was responsible for the last battle between Scotland and England at Culloden in 1745. He was given the nickname of "Bonnie."  | G. Lord Crawford       |
| 8. Is the current Prime Minister of Great Britain. He helped Scotland to gain its own Parliament.  | H. Queen Victoria      |
| 9. Is the current Chief of Clan Lindsay. Hint: You can find his name on the Clan Lindsay History page.   | I. Robert the Bruce    |
| 10. Is the current Queen of Great Britain. She often visits Holyrood Palace in Edinburgh.  | J. Tony Blair          |
| 11. Was a popular folk hero, similar to Robin Hood. In a recent movie, Liam Neeson played this person.   | K. Robert Burns        |
| 12. Was a Queen who was beheaded by her own cousin, Elizabeth.   | L. Prince Charlie      |
| 13. After William Wallace's death, won a great battle against the English at Bannockburn and later became King of Scotland.  | M. Mary Queen of Scots |
| 14. Was the inspiration for "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." He was a respected man during the day, but did terrible deeds at night.   | N. Deacon Brodie       |
| 15. Wrote "Rob Roy" among other stories about Scotland.  | O. Greyfriar's Bobby   |